

THE VALLEY CITY.

A MOVEMENT FOR REFORM.
MENT AND REFORM.To Issue Bonds—Is Undecided—A So-Called Madstone—Its History—An Approaching Marriage—Briefs—Personal.STANTON, VA., April 8.—(Special).— Stanton, Va., is striving to solve the question of reduction of city expenses, and they're talking of doing so.Of course, this movement is not the drawers of city salaries. The city, having out $75,000 of 6 per cent. bonds, subject to call shortly, proposes to issue a series of twenty thirty-year 4-1/2 per cent., from the sale of which it will retire the 6 per cent.The Council has just authorized City Treasurer Arista Hoge to have prepared and issue coupon bonds to the amount of $75,000, said bonds to be in sum of $20, or multiples thereof, these bonds to be exempt of taxation for city purposes. Already, though the bond forms have not been engraved, bids are in from Baltimore, Detroit, New York, and other cities, and it is believed that the issuance of the "baby bonds" will find many local investors. This will be a saving of interest rate in this way to the city's coffers, and, besides, a goodly sum of interest, will be retained and earned by small local investors.Mr. R. H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturer's Record, of Baltimore, has been in the city for several days.IS UNDECIDED.
The Rev. Dr. J. H. Boyd, of this city, who at the recent session of the Baltimore Conference was made presiding elder of the Washington District, left during the week for his new field of labor. Dr. Boyd has not yet determined whether he will accept of the position at Washington. Either point is favorably located for his work, which covers the Alexandria city and county, and Loudon, Fauquier, Fairfax, Stafford, Prince William, and part of Rappahannock.The Rev. Mr. Prettyman, of Martinsburg, W. Va., formerly of Lexington, who succeeds Dr. Boyd in the Staunton pastorate, will arrive here on Monday.Mr. William G. Gwathkin, of Richmond, will be in the city this week.Mr. B. F. Humphreys, who was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, is improving, and his friends expect to see him out on the streets again at no late date.The Rev. W. J. E. Cox, of Baltimore, formerly pastor of the Staunton Baptist church, will lecture here Thursday night, the proceeds of the lecture to go to the benefit of the building fund of the Baptist church. The congregation is moving to build a new church. Mr. Cox will take as his theme, "An Evening with James Whitcomb Riley, of Indiana."Senator Edward Echols, chairman of the Democratic County Committee, announces the holding of district meetings check for $3,000, the amount of the policy on the life of her husband, who died a short time ago.RED MEN.

The Grand Annual Council of the Improved Order of Red Men will be held here May 19th, and the local Red Men are preparing to bury the hatchet of hospitality in the hearts of their visitors, and will give them a royal welcome.A few days ago some seventy-five or one hundred persons from this section left to make their homes in North Dakota. They took with them a government land. The larger part of these home-seekers go from Rockingham.Mr. William P. Summerson has been elected by Staunton Lodge, Benevolent, Protective Order of Elks, delegate to the Grand Lodge, which meets next at the city of Staunton in the Circuit Court, wherein Mr. W. H. Hyer is plaintiff in one action, and his wife plaintiff in the other, damages being laid respectively at $100 and $500. It is understood that negligence is alleged, by which, in the great flood here last September, two houses belonging to the plaintiffs were well rich demolished.Mr. John L. King, of Staunton, is the possessor of a so-called madstone.

It was given to him by his father, Mr.
N. B. Sheppard, by whom it was received from C. C. King, a long-years-old resident of Staunton, who died in 1862 on Cow-Pasture river, where the stone is said to have been taken from a deer's stomach. The stone is of light-brown color, oval shaped, though its longer axis and sides are rather flattened. A shell-like, rugged formation covers one side, and the stone is of great weight.It is said that the madstone has been successfully applied in a number of cases of snake and mad-dog bite, and has always effected a cure. The stone is now in the possession of Mr. King, who will deliver the baccalaureate address at the commencement exercises of the Valley Seminary, at Waynesboro'.The City Democratic Committee, of Staunton, has elected Mr. Richard D.
Bell as its primary to nominate a candidate for City Treasurer. So far no opposition to Treasurer Arista Hoge, who has made an excellent record, has been heard of.Police Justice Landers' report for March shows fines imposed $119.50, and costs $17.94, of which $1.25 were collected.The Rev. Dr. J. A. Quarles, of Lexington, will deliver the baccalaureate ad-

of Colonel George Adams, the bride's handsome young widow, a graduate of the Augusta Female Seminary, of Staunton, and has resided here for several
